

SOCIETY

(Continued From Second Page.)

o'clock. Bon J. Potter, A. R. C. O., London, will be the organist at this recital. The entire choir of the Monumental Church, consisting of forty voices, will sing "Gallia." Mrs. W. F. Monell, soprano, and Webb B. Hill, tenor, will also sing. All interested are invited to attend. Doors of the church will be opened at 7:30 o'clock. Pupils' Recital.

The pupils of Pegrum's Seminary rendered an unusually interesting program last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. C. M. Eddington, 1829 Floyd Avenue, when they entertained their parents and friends. Those taking part in the entertainment for the evening were Misses Eliza Elridge, Estelle Smith, Aubrey Sahnow, Frances Elmore, Elora Miller, Oriole Godsey, Essie Strallman, Louise Dixon, Ray Wilkerson, Ruth Bagby, Stella Anderson, Nellie Brown, Madeline McDonafter spending the past week in Richmond.

Miss Addie Carter Williams, of this city, is visiting Mrs. J. B. O'Connell in Staunton.

Miss Virginia Gresham, who has been the guest of Miss Beale Butler, at Bowling Green, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Belle Martin has returned to her home in Salem, after visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Thomas Burton, of this city, is the guest of relatives in Stafford county.

Miss Bettie Booker, who has been a guest of Miss Marian Meade here, has returned to the University of Virginia.

LITTLE MISS MARIA ADELE ADKINS.
Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adkin, of this city. Little Miss Adkins is one of the most charming little girls in the little folks' society here, and is very talented in musical lines, being already a violinist of some little note among the musical people of Richmond.

ough, Inez Duke, Marie Grubbs, Ruby Duke, Grace Vincent, Richard Elridge, Moses Ellyson, Brock Minor.

Miss Jane Glickson, who has been a guest of Miss Annie Hoge, at 1601 West Grace Street, returned to Staunton yesterday.

Miss Thereso Nurney and Miss Elizabeth Downs, of Baltimore, returned to Suffolk yesterday, after spending a week in Richmond.

Mrs. Hatton Coulbourne Valentine, who has been spending three weeks with her sister, Mrs. T. Garrett, at "Glendale," Montgomery county, Md., has returned to the city.

Mrs. Tunis has returned to Norfolk, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Sale, in Richmond.

Miss Lucy Woodfolk, of Bowling Green, Va., is the guest of friends in this city for several weeks.

Mrs. Charles E. Dickinson has returned to Richmond after a trip to Bermuda.

Miss Nell R. Lee Murphy left yesterday at noon for Washington and Baltimore, where she will visit friends for ten days.

Mrs. McKinney and Miss Frankie McKinney have returned to Farmville

Warrenton Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Warrenton, Va., March 25.—Mrs. W. A. Garner is at home after a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Arrand, in Charlottesville.

Miss Catherine Sowers left on Thursday morning for New Orleans, La., where she will be the guest of Miss Alice Smith. Chaplain and Mrs. Frank Thompson, of the Newport, R. I. Training Station, spent Tuesday in Warrenton at the Paquiere Institute, where their two daughters are students.

The Misses Hawley, of Orleans, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. W. W. Brown. Dr. and Mrs. Sam W. Maphis left this week for a ten days' trip to Staunton, Winchester and Charlottesville.

Dr. C. H. Fair left this week for Philadelphia and New York. Dr. Fair has just returned from a trip through South Carolina.

Mrs. M. M. Wood, who is now making her home in West Virginia, spent several days in Warrenton this week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hamilton.

Master William Hayes, Jr., entertained on Tuesday afternoon in honor of his eight birthday.

George Nelson is in Warrenton with his mother, Mrs. George Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Nelson, of Salisbury, N. C., spent the week-end in Warrenton.

Miss Elizabeth Holt was hostess on Monday afternoon at a birthday party.

E. H. Leach, of Philadelphia, was in Warrenton several days this week.

Master Jack Gibb, of Jacob Tome School, Port Deposit, Md., is spending a vacation with his mother, Mrs. E. W. Gibb, at Mrs. Edward Carter's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wyle are at home after a stay of several weeks in Florida.

Miss Annie Camden Spilman and General B. D. Spilman are at Elway Hall after a stay in Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, of New York; Miss Crosby and Miss Miller, who have been

Winchester Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Winchester, Va., March 25.—Miss Jane Minor, of Richmond, came this week to spend some time with friends in Winchester.

Mrs. Robert Patterson, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Bessie Whiting Conrad, has returned to Winchester after passing the winter at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Little, in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bailey have returned to New Jersey after spending a week with friends in this city.

C. L. Thomas, of Richmond, has been in town this week visiting friends.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Maphis, of Warrenton, are visiting at the home of the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Luther Maphis, in Winchester.

Mrs. Mattie Sweetland, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Norton in Winchester, has returned to her home in New York, accompanied by Miss Margarette Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stelle have returned to their home in Winchester after spending the winter at Newark, N. J.

Mrs. W. K. Alther, who has been spending several months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Moore, in Winchester, left this week to join Mr. Alther at Fort Bliss, N. M.

Mrs. J. W. Arnold, of Natural Bridge, came this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Maria Worthington, at her home in Winchester.

Mrs. Robert McC. Glass has returned to Winchester after visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. B. Davis, in Washington.

Mrs. M. M. Hutchinson has returned to her home at Rockbridge Baths after visiting relatives in Winchester.

Mrs. David Ambach returned to her home in Baltimore this week after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Heller, in Winchester.

Mrs. Henry R. Bravely, who has been visiting friends in Washington, has returned to her home in Winchester.

Rev. John P. Hyde, D. D., has returned to Winchester from Clarksburg, W. Va., where he spent some time at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart.

Miss Katharine Wagner, of Washington, is visiting relatives in Winchester.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Charles F. Nagel came from Washington on Wednesday evening to spend the balance of the week at the Winchester Inn.

William M. Atkinson, Jr., of New York, is visiting his parents, Judge and Mrs. W. M. Atkinson, in Winchester.

Mrs. John Hook, of Hagerstown, Md., came on Thursday to visit friends in Winchester.

Miss Clara Wood and Mrs. Effie Cartwright left Winchester on Thursday to visit friends in Washington and Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Henry, of Richmond, have been spending several days with friends in Winchester.

Mrs. John G. Walker has returned to her home near Winchester after passing the winter in Washington and Maryland.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place, has returned to her home in New Castle.

Julian East, of Altavista, spent Sunday in South Boston.

Mrs. Mary E. Bruce, of Berry Hill, near South Boston, left a short while ago for Richmond, where she will reside in the future.

John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 351, met at Edmondson's Warehouse of ice on Monday afternoon. The main object was to perfect plans for the unveiling exercises of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Houston on the 17th day of April.

Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, will be the principal orator of the occasion. Other speakers will be General J. S. Carr, of Durham; State Commander McDowell Lee, of Lancaster county; and many others from this place are expected to make short addresses.

place,